Let's Start!

What time is it? What are you doing now?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about free-time activities or personal likes/dislikes in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about what people do.
- I can ask and say what people are doing.
- I can ask for and tell the time.

Ask your partner:

- What time do you eat breakfast?
- What time do you go to work or school?

Let's Explore!

What time is it? Peter is late for something! What does he have to do?

* To "have to" means to need to or must.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: It's still raining. I'm having another coffee.
Peter: Good idea. You're drinking decaf anyway.
Peter: What time is it?
Vanessa: It's 2:30.
Peter: 2:30! Oh, no!
Vanessa: What?
Peter: I have to meet a friend.
Vanessa: Are you late?
Peter: No, but I have to meet him soon. Do you have the bus schedule?
Vanessa: No. I only have the train timetable. Here.
Peter: Thanks. There is a party later. Want to come with me?
Vanessa: Are you inviting me? Cool! What time is the party?
Peter: 8 o'clock.
Vanessa: I can meet you there.
Peter: Great! What is your e-mail address? Mine is peter.smith@mail.com.
Vanessa: Mine is Vanessa.rocks@mail.com. My number is 555-6869.
Peter: How do you spell your name?
Vanessa: V-A-N-E-S-S-A.
Peter: OK! See you later!

Learning Points

The Present Simple Tense and the Present Continuous Tense

You use the Present Simple tense to talk about routines - things that don't change.

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about actions that are happening now.

Examples:

- I play soccer every day.
- I am playing soccer now.

Review of Asking and Telling the Time

You use this question to ask a person about the time:

Ann: What time is it?

Tom: It is 5 p.m.

You can also use the Wh- question word when:

Ann: When is the meeting?

Tom: It is at 10 a.m.

Look at the chart for saying the time at different times of the day.

Time Word	Time of Day
noon	12 o'clock in the afternoon
midnight	12 o'clock at night
a.m.	the time between midnight and noon
p.m.	the time between noon and midnight

Examples:

- It's noon. I'm hungry.
- It's midnight. I have to go to sleep.
- The school starts at 9 a.m.
- I have dinner at 8 p.m.
