Let's Start!

I love playing video games! Do you?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people, their likes and dislikes, homes or countries in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about current actions.
- I can make a suggestion.
- I can express possession.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like doing?
- What does your family like to do?

Let's Explore!

Peter and Sally talk at the coffee shop. What does Peter suggest?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: How is your coffee, Peter?
Peter: Mmm, this coffee's good! Very smooth. How is your juice?
Sally: Delicious, thank you. It's very fresh!
Peter: How's your brother? How's he doing?
Sally: He's good.
Peter: What is he doing today?
Sally: He is playing video games with our cousin. It's their hobby.
Peter: I'm playing games too, on my laptop!
Sally: You're such a kid! Are you studying too?
Peter: Yeah.
Sally: Why don't you study at the library? It's quiet there.
Peter: Yeah, but it's too quiet.
Sally: I think the cafe is too noisy ... and the coffee smells too good!
Peter: You're right!

Let's Practice!

Let's Review Possessive Adjectives

Possessive adjectives go before nouns.

Pronoun	Possessive Adjective	Example
I	My	My coffee is smooth.
You	Your	Your bag is beautiful.
He	His	His computer is new.
She	Her	Her father is cooking dinner.
We	Our	Our homework is hard.
They	Their	Their books are interesting.

Examples:

- Ann: Is this your bag?
- Bob: No, it's our mother's bag.

Making Suggestions

You can suggest ideas or things to do.
You use the phrases:

Why don't you ... ?
How about ... ?

Examples:

- Why don't you study at the library?
- How about studying at the park?
