Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people, their likes and dislikes, homes or countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to do in your free time?
- What are your friends doing right now?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can express possession.
- I can ask and say what people are doing.

Let's Explore!

Peter calls Vanessa. What does she say?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Hey, John. What are you doing?
John: Hey, Peter. I'm getting a drink. Why don't I get one for you?
Peter: This is mine, thanks. Hmm ... where is Vanessa?
John: Vanessa? Oh, right. The woman you met.
Peter: Can I borrow your phone? I want to call her.
John: Where's yours? Just kidding. Sure, here.
Vanessa: Hello?
Peter: Hi, it's Peter.
Vanessa: Oh, hi Peter. I'm not coming to the party, sorry.
Peter: Oh. Why not?
Vanessa: It's raining and I want to stay inside. My cousin, Natalie, is here, too. She's cooking dinner.
Peter: Natalie? I met a Natalie in my class. What does she look like?
Vanessa: She has blonde hair.
Peter: Oh, it's not the same Natalie. Well, I have to go.
Vanessa: Why don't we meet tomorrow?
Peter: Maybe ... Bye.
Vanessa: OK. Bye.

Review of Possessive Pronouns and Adjectives

Compare possessive adjectives and pronouns in this chart:

	Possessive Adjectives	Possessive Pronouns
I	It's my juice.	It's mine.
You	That's your coffee.	That coffee is yours.
He	It's his computer.	The computer is his.
She	It's her bag.	The bag is hers.
We	Those are our books.	Those books are ours.
They	It's their car.	The car is theirs.

Review of the Present Continuous

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about current actions.

Current actions are things that are happening NOW.

Remember, to ask questions, you use phrases like:

What is he doing?

What is your mother doing?

You make the Present Continuous tense negative by adding not after the verb to be and before the verb-ing.

Examples:

- I am not looking for anything right now.
- He is not eating dinner.
- She isn't playing video games.
