Let's Start!

She has blonde hair! She is an interesting woman! Let's describe people.

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What does your best friend look like?
- Are you an outgoing person? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can talk about people's physical appearance and personality.
- I can exchange personal information.

Let's Explore!

Peter tells John about Vanessa. What does she look like?

* Remember to use the word "What", not how when you talk about what people look like.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Hey, Peter! You're late!
Peter: Sorry ... I met a woman at the cafe.
John: I see.
Peter: She is beautiful.
John: What does she look like?
Peter: She is tall and has strawberry blonde hair.
John: Hmm ... You like brunettes, right? And short women?
Peter: I like them all!
John: How about her personality?
Peter: She is outgoing and fun - a really interesting woman.
John: That's great, Peter.
Peter: What are you doing?
John: I'm borrowing this book for class.
Peter: Oh, I have to get a new library card. Excuse me, can I get a new library card?
Librarian: Sure, what is your name and phone number?
Peter: It's Peter Smith. My number is 555-2356.
Librarian: Here you are.
Peter: Thank you very much.

Let's Practice!
